

VIRTUAL HISTORY HUNTERS YOUTH REPORTER PROGRAM PREPARING FOR YOUR VIRTUAL FIELD TRIPS

The History Hunters Youth Reporter Program and participating organizations are dedicated to excellence in education and instruction, as well as concern for upholding the highest standards of professionalism and ensuring a safe, online environment to the best of our ability. With this in mind, policies ensure that the participating cultural organizations, through its students, staff, and visitors, conduct operations consistently with concern for such values, and for the protection of minors while virtually interacting with educators from Stenton, Cliveden, La Salle University Art Museum, The Johnson House, and Wyck.

BY SIGNING THIS FORM I AM COMMITTING TO:

- 1) Assigning pre-visit workbook readings and Virtual Reality YouTube house tours before each scheduled Google Meet Session to ensure my students are prepared for discussion with the History Hunters Educators.
- 2) Virtually attending scheduled Google Meet Sessions with my students.
 - a. I understand that video and audio will be used for teaching purposes during the Google Meet Sessions.
 - b. I understand that my students may, but are not required to, turn on their video and/or audio during the Google Meet Sessions.
- 3) Requesting any cancellations/ reschedules of Google Meet Sessions at least 2 weeks prior to the originally scheduled date.
- 4) Participating in evaluation of the virtual programming, if requested by Program Director.
